G.W. MEETS GALLAUDET

Play William and Mary Tuesday, January 10, at Coliseum; Same Line-Up To Be Used.

Fresh from a sweeping victory over the Fort Myer quint, the Hatchette dribblers are confident of taking the Gallaudet five into camp this evening at the Coliseum floor. As a preliminary contest the strong Congress Heights Yankees will meet another strong independent team.

Gallaudet has been decisively beaten by both Catholic University and the Congress Heights Yankees, and on form the Buff and Blue are long favorites, but remembering a 7-7 tie football game on November 11, a battle royal is promised.

Felix Altrup's excellent play against the Fort Myer team assures his start at center, and although "Goody" Gosnell has been bothered by a bad tooth, it is probable that he and either "Willie" Thomas or Earl Chesney will start at forwards. In the back court Capt. Daily and "Goldie" Goldstein will keep the Kendall Greeners from scoring easily.

Stephens, Steward, Hughes, Bracklaw and Spears are expected out soon, and their addition should greatly strengthen the squad.

The following Tuesday the local five is scheduled to meet the William and Mary tossers on the local floor at the Coliseum, and an excellent contest is assured.

BASKETBALL SUCCESS DEPENDS ON STUDENTS

Manager "Fitz" Hurley Predicts Splendid Season if Students Cooperate; Team Makes Good Showing.

Urging the cooperation of G. W. U. students with the basketball team by attending games and cheering, "Fitz" Hurley, manager of this year's squad, submits the following letter:

"To the students of George Washington University: Let us begin the new year with the spirit to do the things that will be most beneficial to our University and ourselves. There are two ways to accomplish this: First, each one should work for the school along the line for which he is best fitted and, second, the student body as a whole should back to the limit these individual efforts.

"Thirty reported for basketball practice shortly after Thanksgiving. Every weekday since, including the Christmas holidays, they have labored untiringly to make George Washington a strong team. They are good material, they are competently coached. Do you want them to be a winning team? Then back them. Come to every game and yell and yell and yell for the Hatchettes!

"Our schedule includes the best teams of the South. Last year's South Atlantic champions will battle us on our own floor, and every important Virginia five will clash with the Buff and Blue.

"The team itself is confident that a good showing will be made. They have worked together and work in unison. It is not the practice of Coach Bryan Morse to flatter his men, yet he admits that never before has he had such good work this early in the season.

"Big changes have been made at the Coliseum, so that it is now ready for crackerjack games and record-breaking crowds. After some of the games, dancing is planned. Everything is ready. The team will do its part to win. Will you do yours? Attend the games!

"Wishing you a very prosperous New Year, sincerely,
"Fitz" Hurley, Basketball Mgr."

G. W. GIRL SWIMMERS RESUME HARD PRACTICE

Girl swimmers must tackle hard work immediately, if plans are to be realized, according to Coach "Bee" Woodford. Tank meets, suspended for two weeks during the holidays, will be resumed today at the Central High School pools from 5 to 7 p. m., to continue weekly during these hours. Miss Woodford emphasizes the importance of a full attendance at this time, since the girls need a great deal more practice before the exhibitions and class meets scheduled to take place in the near future.

Meanwhile the girls will be receiving steady training for the South Atlantic championship meets, which the teams as a whole expect to enter next spring. All interested who as yet have not turned out are urged to attend today's meet.

CENSOR

Number of "Ghost" to Make Appearance Jan. 30.

PLAN BEST ISSUE YET

History of Order for Suppression Related; Many Profs Buy "Bootleg" Copies; Post Office Department Renders Favorable Opinion; Board of Managers Advise Continuing Publication of Magazine.

Censors, censorship and the need for censorship will be burlesqued in the next issue of the much discussed and suppressed "Ghost," which will make its appearance January 30, according to "Tex" Nall, chief of the board of spirits. To carry out the spirit of this issue, the staff will change its name from the "board of spirits" to the board of censors.

The previous plan for an intoxication edition will not be abandoned, but will be combined with the censor idea, which should result in the most peppy, witty and snappy of all "Ghosts" yet issued.

Little difficulty is expected in selling this issue, as President Hodgkins' order for suppression of the holiday number proved to be great publicity for G. W.'s newest activity. The next day all of the Washington dailies carried big stories on it, until everybody had heard about the suppressed "Ghost."

OPINIONS MANY AND VARIED.

Many opinions were voiced by various organizations in regard to the tone of the magazine and the advisability of its suppression. Some said President Hodgkins was entirely justified in his action; others declared the contents of the magazine were in every way suitable for publication in a magazine of that type.

President Hodgkins declared he objected to the tenor of the "Ghost" and particularly to the cover design, not because he considered it indecent or immoral but because he believed a college magazine should be conservative rather than extreme.

Mrs. Giles Scott Rafter, president of the Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, of Washington, said: "People who send their children to college, often with great effort and sacrifice, do so because they expect their children to be benefited. The University authorities would not be doing their duties toward the parents or the students unless they censured such material."

EXTOLL PRESIDENT'S COURAGE.

Mrs. Francis St. Clair, State regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, said: "Dr. Hodgkins was exactly right, and you can quote me for saying so. All the mothers of the city should stand back of him. I admire his bravery in taking the stand he has and stopping this thing at once. If he let this issue of the paper go out, there is no telling what the next one would be like. I am sorry any of the girls had any part in publishing the things of which Dr. Hodgkins disapproved."

PROFS. PUT O. K. ON ISSUE.

Most of the professors declared they could see nothing wrong with the "Ghost," and, in fact, got copies, even though some of them had to get "bootlegged" copies, paying increased prices therefor, and then enjoyed pleasant hours looking over the much discussed publication. The Post Office Department rendered a favorable opinion, allowing the Christmas number to be mailed.

The Board of Managers, in a resolution to President Hodgkins, advised the continuance of the "Ghost" in the future. The resolution follows:

"That in view of the action already taken in the matter, no further copies are to be printed and none distributed or sold by students; that the publication be continued with the recommendation that the negotiations now going on for recognition as a regular student activity of the University be carried on; that in view of the expressed regret by the editorial staff in admitting poor taste in selection of matter for publication in the Christmas number, the staff be retained with the advice to be more judicious in matter selected for further use and that recognition of the "Ghost" shall depend upon proper management during the remainder of the year."

BASEBALL IS DROPPED

Board of Managers Eliminate Varsity and Freshman Squads; Greeks to Have Schedule.

With the air full of rumors of "gigantic trades" and with sporting pages of the local dailies filled with talk of baseball gossip in the big leagues, it seems a logical moment to cogitate a bit on George Washington's prospects for the coming season on the diamond.

As was the case last year, the Board of Managers has decreed the Buff and Blue shall be without a varsity or freshman nine, but the local Greeks can be counted on to put on both well played games and misplayed games.

What with Owens and Ellis of S. P. E.; "Battering Babs" Walters and Perry Johnson of P. S. K., and hosts of other competent batteries, a wild season is anticipated.

HATCHETTES EASILY WIN FIRST CONTEST

Altrup and Daily Star; Second Team Used in Last Half; Officers' Fail to Score in First Period.

With little opposition against them, the Hatchette basketball quint started the new year and the season right by turning in a 37-7 win over the Fort Myer Officers in the game played at the Central Coliseum Monday evening, January 2. A few minutes after the second half started the second team was substituted, thus making the contest a little more even and furnishing the spectators with amusing antics, which reminded one of the football field.

A unique feature of the game was the one-sided score maintained throughout the contest; the Hatchettes having 29 points before Fort Myer even scored. This score was made by Loub from a layup shot from the middle of the floor, which feat brought forth prolonged cheers from all present.

Capt. Daily played his usual good game in the guarding position, and Goldstein from last year's freshman squad broke up many of the officers' passes. The star of the game was Altrup, who played center. He led the way in scoring baskets by caging five. Gosnell also showed up well, especially in throwing free passes, as he scored 6 out of 10 attempts.

Although this game can hardly be considered as an index of the team's abilities, the team work evidenced in the contest gives promise of a fast passing combination that will give a good account of itself.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED FOR G. W. U. GIRL TOSSERS

The girls' varsity basketball team will play their first game of the season tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, when they are scheduled to meet the Wilson Normal School girls in Central High gym. Manager Daisy Robison promises to have on the floor a picked team that will far outshine its opponents, and urges as many visitors as possible to attend.

The season's schedule has just been arranged, and Miss Robison announces the following games:

Jan. 7—Wilson Normal, at C. H. S.
Jan. 21—Temple College, at C. H. S.
Feb. 3—Gallaudet, at Gallaudet.
Feb. 11—Fredericksburg, at Fredericksburg.
Feb. 25—Gallaudet, at C. H. S.
March 1—Temple College, at Temple College.
March 2—University of Pennsylvania, at University of Pennsylvania.
March 3—Swarthmore, at Swarthmore.

PLAN SENIOR MIXER.

The Senior Class will hold a mixer in Lisner Hall chapel on Wednesday evening, January 11, beginning at 9 o'clock. Following the dance, the crowd will adjourn to Child's, where tables have been reserved for the occasion.

PLEASANT THOUGHT

18 more days until the midyear examinations begin. Do your studying early.

UNIVERSITY HOST TO SPANISH PROFS

Prof. Doyle Presides at Fifth Annual Session of Association; Notables Speak at Banquet.

George Washington University professors took a prominent part when the fifth annual meeting of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish was held at the Law School last Friday and Saturday. The sessions, which were a great success, opened Friday morning, when Dean William A. Wilbur greeted the delegates with an address of welcome to the city and to the University. Prof. Henry G. Doyle, president of the Washington chapter, presided.

Many notable personages from all over the country addressed the meetings. Prof. John D. Fitzgerald, of the University of Illinois, was reelected president.

The banquet of the association was held Friday evening at the Franklin Square Hotel, with Prof. Doyle acting as toastmaster. The speakers of the evening included Dr. John J. Tigert, U. S. Commissioner of Education, and His Excellency, Beltran Matthei, Ambassador from Chile to the United States.

The committee on arrangements of the association included Prof. Henry Grattan Doyle (chairman), Prof. Joaquim de Siqueira Coutinho, Mr. G. M. Pattison and Mr. Merle E. Proitzman of George Washington University. The advisory committee includes Dean George N. Henning, of George Washington University, and Dr. Frank W. Ballou, superintendent of schools.

CHERRY TREE PICTURES MUST BE TAKEN BY FEB.

Attention again is called to the fact that all senior pictures must be taken on or before January 15. After this date no senior pictures can get in this year's Cherry Tree.

It is advised also that pictures for any other purpose be taken before this date, as on or before that time pictures will be taken at Clinedinst's Studio for $2, whereas between the 15th and February 1 the price will be $2.50. After February 1 no pictures will be taken for any purpose.

Any senior who has not yet sent his personal data to the Cherry Tree is urged to do so at once. Blanks for that purpose will be found in the office.

DANTZIG TO LECTURE TO FUTURE ENGINEERS

The Engineering Society is planning its largest meeting of the year for next Thursday, January 12, when Mr. T. Dantzig, research engineer for the S. K. F. industries, has been engaged to deliver a lecture on the manufacture and uses of ball bearings. Everyone is invited to attend, and special invitations have been sent to engineering students of Catholic University, Maryland State and at the Bureau of Standards, and also to the members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Association of Engineers, and to our own Chemical Society. A response to these invitations, besides the interest of our own students, will certainly assure a banner meeting at this time.

RECENTLY ACQUIRED PROPERTY TO BE USED

The property recently bequeathed to the University by the late Colonel Woodhull is soon to be turned over to the University. The building will be used for administrative purposes, Dean Hodgkins states, but he says this arrangement may be only for the remainder of the school year, as the definite decision as to its use permanently has not been decided upon.

OHIO LAW CLUB TO MEET.

The Ohio Legal Club will hold its meeting January 9, 1922, in room No. 3 of the Law School. All members are urged to be present. Miss Sladd will give the report on recent Ohio decisions. Students of the Law School who hail from the Buckeye State and who have not as yet affiliated with the club are cordially invited to be present at the meeting.

TO NAME COMMITTEES

Plans for Junior Week To Be Made; George Washington Glee Club To Hold Concert.

Chairmen of the committees for Junior Week will be appointed definitely at a meeting of the officers of the several junior classes of the University at the home of Maxine Girts, president of the junior class of Columbian College, on Friday night, January 6, 1922. Of a tentative list of committeemen, the following probably will be chosen as chairmen: H. Clarence Churchman, to be chairman of the general committee for the week; W. Cameron Burton, chairman of the prom committee; G. Balle Springston, chairman of the reception committee; John Paul Earnest, chairman of the finance committee; and "Doc" Nagle, chairman of the publicity committee. There may be a committee appointed for a Glee Club concert evening, but as yet nothing has been done in regard to such an evening.

Junior Week, as it stands at present, will be the week of February 20. Rauscher's has been engaged for Thursday evening, February 23, 1922. Besides this and the reception there will no doubt be several innovations like the Glee Club concert mentioned. Junior society will perhaps have a chance to celebrate a basketball victory during the week. Announcement of the committees and other dates of the week will come later.

HONOR CONSTITUTION NEARING COMPLETION

Student Council Expected to Ratify at Coming Meeting; President and Deans of G. W. U. Approve.

Excellent progress has been made toward the completion of the honor constitution. For the past two months the committee in charge, composed of Gladys Twele, Miss Margaret C. Colflesh, have been diligently working to give the school a working method of preserving honor at G. W. U. At the last meeting of the Student Council the constitution was read by Miss Twele. Although the Student Council heartily approved the results of their labors, it was considered more expedient to first gain the approval of the president of the University and the deans of the respective colleges.

Miss Twele has seen the above mentioned persons, and approval of the president and the other heads of the University has been secured. In the next issue of The Hatchet the constitution will be printed in full with all the necessary explanations. It is to be hoped the student body will heartily back the efforts of the Student Council and the University officials.

ENOSINIAN TO DISCUSS LEWIS' "MAIN STREET"

The next meeting of the Enosinian Society will be held in Lisner Hall, January 9, when the society will take up the discussion of the novel "Main Street," by Sinclair Lewis. The meetings of this society are held bimonthly and much good work is expected to be done before the centennial banquet, which is to be held next March, when many literary notables will be invited.

GREEK ASSO. TO MEET.

The Interfraternity Association will hold a meeting Sunday, January 8, for the purpose of electing a new president to succeed "Bill" Neill, who recently resigned. Among other things, plans for interfraternity basketball will be drawn up at this meeting, and schedules will be announced later.

A great deal of interest is centered on the winning of the association scholarship cup, given to the fraternity having the highest scholarship average for the past year. It is expected that grades will be averaged and an award made at this meeting.

TO HOLD FINAL TRY-OUTS.

Final try-outs for the intercollegiate debate teams will be held Wednesday, January 11, at the Law School, at which six men and two alternates will be chosen from the twelve preliminary winners. Judges will be chosen from the debating council to represent G. W. U. The dates of the debate are not yet set. There will perhaps be a debate held at Swarthmore and then one at home with West Virginia at the same time as the debate between West Virginia and Swarthmore. There are four old men who have put their names among the twelve preliminary winners. These will no doubt make the G. W. U. team a powerful one.

The Basketball Season

We are now in the midst of the basketball season, and should follow with enthusiasm the games in which our team participates. A creditable schedule, listing some of the best universities in the country, has been arranged, and the larger part of the games are to be played "at home." Our team is greatly improved over last year and promises a good fight to every opponent. An excellent court has been secured in the Central Coliseum, which provides sufficient room for G. W. U. students as spectators.

The thing for us to do now is to give this basketball team every bit of encouragement possible in order that they may come through victorious, returning to us as conquerors. We can do this by subscribing to the student activity tax (those few who haven't done so already), then attending the games and standing back of our team by cheering and heartfelt sympathy. Every organization should urge its members to be present at games, demonstrating that their position in the University stands for the promotion of school interests.

Students should realize they are not throwing away their time or using it disadvantageously in attending these games. By attending we are receiving a course not included in the curriculum, but a fundamental part of the University—its life. Without experiencing this phase, no person can really call himself a student of a university, and after graduation in public life he will regret his inability to recall these pleasant remembrances. Let us all be in attendance at the home games and show that we are bona fide students.

Oh You "Ghost!"

When President Hodgkins lighted the match to the "Ghost" in suppressing all further sales of the last issue, we wonder if he dreamed that his action would cause it to blaze into such fragrance. The publicity, however, that has been secured is not only a big boost for the magazine, but is the greatest advertisement that George Washington University has ever received. Although the character of the incident may be objectionable to some as detrimental to the name of the University, news is news, and we are confident that a great many people now know of George Washington University who never heard of it before.

In passing a resolution to the effect that the "Ghost" will continue, and urging its adoption as an official school publication, the Board of Managers has taken a decisive step in the encouragement of school activities and the advancement of our University. With the impetus given by this conflagration, the magazine will take on new life and will become one of the leading publications in school, and should continue as such. In obtaining this status, it is only fair to the University and to the other publications that subsist to a large extent on their advertising that this paper should be formally recognized and be placed on the roll of publications and activities listed under the benefits of the student activity tax, donating its subscription proceeds to this fund. Let's take our hats off to the "Ghost."

STUDENT SLAVE SAYS:

With the midyears only a few weeks off comes the question of an honor system for G. W. My tip as to the best way to cheat the honor system is to "Know your stuff, Al, know your stuff."

There is a certain girl that runs around the campus, and I can't tell whether she has outgrown her dress or whether it's the latest style.

Dear Stupe: Why does everyone whisper when they go through 2023 G Street?

Dear Tommie: Because it's A. Lisner Hall. (Read it slow; you'll get it.)

Dear Stupe: What course are you supposed to be taking down here, and have you figures to show what is the most popular course at G. W.?

Dear "Hen": The first question can be answered by one, that is a B. S. in Campusty. Don't get it mixed with a B. S. in Chemistry, for many a good engineer has gone wrong with that course and transferred his affections to A. B. because of it.

P. S.—The reason I call you "Hen" is because you seem to lay around so much.

MORSE BURNED WHEN GAS HEATER EXPLODES

Bryan Morse is entitled to wear a gold stripe on his sleeve in recognition of a wound which he incurred while rendering distinguished service to George Washington. Last Friday the gas heater which tempers the icy cold water of the Potomac so that the members of our basketball squad can take a comfortable shower refused to function. In no way baffled, our coach endeavored to fix it himself. He is, however, a much better coach than a mechanic, because his efforts resulted only in an explosion which slightly burned his arms and burst the stove. The result was that the boys went home uncleaned. It is said Mr. Morse is doing splendidly in the hospital of experience.

LAW FROSH TO DANCE.

Speech-making and dancing will feature the party scheduled to be held Monday, January 16, in Lisner Hall at 8:30 by the freshman law class. Several prominent law students and probably the dean and other members of the faculty will give snappy talks, guaranteed to be short enough to leave the major part of the evening for dancing.

What Is a Vacuum Furnace?

In an ordinary furnace materials burn or combine with the oxygen of the air. Melt zinc, cadmium, or lead in an ordinary furnace and a scum of "dross" appears, an impurity formed by the oxygen. You see it in the lead pots that plumbers use.

In a vacuum furnace, on the contrary, the air is pumped out so that the heated object cannot combine with oxygen. Therefore in the vacuum furnace impurities are not formed.

Clearly, the chemical processes that take place in the two types are different, and the difference is important. Copper, for instance, if impure, loses in electrical conductivity. Vacuum-furnace copper is pure.

So the vacuum furnace has opened up a whole new world of chemical investigation. The Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company have been exploring this new world solely to find out the possibilities under a new series of conditions.

Yet there have followed practical results highly important to industry. The absence of oxidation, for instance, has enabled chemists to combine metals to form new alloys heretofore impossible. Indeed, the vacuum furnace has stimulated the study of metallurgical processes and has become indispensable to chemists responsible for production of metals in quantities.

And this is the result of scientific research.

Discover new facts, add to the sum total of human knowledge, and sooner or later, in many unexpected ways, practical results will follow.

NURSES HOLD DANCE.

A Christmas dance was given to the nurses by the Board of Lady Managers. It was held at Mrs. Dyer's on the night of December 29. Almost all the nurses were present, and several of the Lady Managers. The music was good, the refreshments delicious, and a fine time was had by all.

Greeks Hold Dances and Tea Fights During Christmas Vacation; Prominent Personages Act as Chaperones for Festive Occasions; Kappa Sigma Holds Open House in New Home; Proverbial Christmas Spirit in Evidence.

Christmas among the fraternities rang out the spirit of "peace on earth, good will toward men" in many dances, open houses and teas held during the holiday season. Although many students were able to return to their homes and enjoy Christmas with their families, others less fortunate and those who reside in the city exuberantly celebrated the yuletide.

Pi Beta Phi Sorority inaugurated the days of mirth and jollity with a dance at 2400 Sixteenth Street Thursday, December 22, 1921. The large ballroom was beautifully and appropriately decorated with Christmas greens. A unique feature of the decorative scheme was an artistically trimmed Christmas tree at one end of the floor which was hung with electric lights connected to a switch in such a manner that they flashed on and off, making a very effective bit of decorating. Senator and Mrs. Ladd and Mrs. Annie Robey Walker were the chaperones of a very delightful dance given the following night in the same place by the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity. One very striking and novel number was the Christmas tree dance, so called because all illumination was extinguished except a few wall lamps and the Christmas tree, which flashed intermittently. One representative from each of the other fraternities was present. Sigma Phi Epsilon also held a New Year dance at its house December 31.

MEDIC FRAT ENTERTAINS.

The Chi Phi Medical Fraternity entertained December 23 with a dance at the house of the Georgetown chapter of the same fraternity, 2009 N Street Northwest. The rooms were bedecked with Christmas decorations and the green and white, the colors of the fraternity, in a very attractive manner.

The Delta Tau Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternities entertained on Christmas Eve, the former at the beautiful Columbia Country Club and the latter in the exquisite ballroom of the Phi Sigma Kappa house on Massachusetts Avenue at Scott Circle, with Mr. and Mrs. Englehardt, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Huff as chaperones. Phi Sigma Kappa also held a very delightful afternoon tea at their home on January 2, 1922, at which a large number of students and some of the faculty and their friends were present. The tea was open to all the students of the University.

HOLD OPEN HOUSE.

Kappa Sigma Fraternity celebrated the season with an open house at their new home, 1758 N Street Northwest. The house was decorated throughout with Xmas decorations and the colors of the fraternity, scarlet, green and white, which combined to make an extremely pretty color scheme. Among the guests was one of special note and distinction, one of the five founders of the fraternity, and of those five the only one alive today. This gentleman was John Covert Boyd. Other notable guests were Charles H. Holmes, Bryan Morse, Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, J. M. Scranage, and William Hallem. Harry Sokolov and his orchestra furnished the music for the occasion. About 500 students visited the new house during the course of the day. Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity gave a dance at the fraternity house the same evening and the Chi Omega Sorority held an open dance at 2400 Sixteenth Street Northwest. The proceeds of this dance are to be turned over to the sociology fund.

The Phi Mu Sorority held a dance in the oak room of the Raleigh Hotel on December 29, 1921. Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Campbell 2d were the chaperones. The ballroom was attractively decorated with Christmas greens. A large number of alumni were present. ## G. W. U. STUDENT MARRIES.

Glenn Corbett, chairman of the Student Council social committee, has succumbed to the wiles of one of the females of the species, as so many have before him.

On January 3, 1922, Miss Nadine Ramsay lost her Canadian citizenship and assumed the Red, White, and Blue toga, when she became the wife of our fellow student, Corbett.

was chaperone. Quite a number of Theta Delta Chi alumni were present.

WRESTLING SCHEDULE BEING FORMULATED

New Men Apply for Try-Outs and Manager is Optimistic for Successful 1922 Season.

Negotiations for wrestling matches are pending with about ten universities, announced Manager J. C. Hatcher last night. While a meet with Gallaudet is about decided on as the first grapple, coming as soon as possible after the midyear exams, the manager is endeavoring to secure meets with Virginia, Washington and Lee, West Virginia, Lehigh, Richmond,
Johns Hopkins and others. The season which usually extends from January 20 to March 10, will not be begun here until about February 1, after the exams.

Among the new men who have come out during the holidays are Grass and Stokes, both in the 140-pound class.
Stokes is captain of the rifle team and was last year a member of the swimming team. He was a member of the wrestling squad at the U. S. Naval Academy while there.

Among the other men who are showing up well, according to the manager, are May, in the middleweight class;
Bruce and Hundley in the 125 and 130 pound classes. Hatcher is the only man in the 175 pound class. A special call is issued by the manager for men to try-out for the 115-pound class.
Every man on the squad is requested to attend the work-out Saturday, January 7, at 7 p. m. in the wrestling room of the "Y."

SUPPRESSED "GHOST" GETS WIDE PUBLICITY

The suppression of the "Ghost" by President Howard L. Hodgkins on Thursday, December 22, has received considerable publicity. Not only were articles concerning it published for nearly a week in the local papers, but four national agencies, The Associated Press; International News Service, Underwood and Underwood and United News Service, have secured "stories" and photographs which have appeared in thousands of papers over the United States.

The photographic reporter from Underwood and Underwood stated that although it was fit material for publication there were many humorous college publications suppressed every year and he thought the scarcity of news was the most prominent reason for the overflow of publicity.

Proof that news of the suppression of the "Ghost" has been distributed over the country is evidenced by Capital holiday visitors from other universities who declare they have been ordered not to return without several copies of this magazine.

MUST PAY FOR CHERRY TREES BEFORE MARCH 1

Announcement is made by the management of the Cherry Tree that subscriptions to the yearbook must be paid for by March 1. No additional charge will be made to those who have paid the $10 activity tax, but to all others the price will be $5.50. Attention is called to the fact that the payment of the $5 activity tax the first semester will not be sufficient to receive a Cherry Tree, but the entire tax of $10 must be paid by March 1.

Those who have not paid the tax should mail their subscriptions or go in person to the Cherry Tree office at 2101 G Street and pay the $5.50. Those who have paid the tax should mail their subscription or go in person to the Cherry Tree office at 2101 G Street and pay the $5.50. Those who have paid the $5 the first semester may receive the yearbook by merely paying the second installment of the tax at the treasurer's office before March 1.
No extra copies of the Cherry Tree will be made, so all who want copies should be sure to order them in time.

FROSH TO DISCUSS PROM.

A freshman class meeting is called for Monday, January 9, in Lisner Hall to discuss plans for a possible freshman prom to be given some time during the latter part of March. All freshmen are urged to be present.

TRACK CANDIDATES TO BE CALLED OUT

Many Experienced Men to Return; To Participate in Several Important Collegiate Meets.

Bolin Turner, manager of track, has issued a call for all track candidates to meet him on Saturday evening, January 14, in Lisner Hall chapel at 8 p. m.

Prospects for the season are unusually bright this year, for at least eight of last year's stars are back and there are many new men who have made exceptional records on the Washington high school squads. Among the old men are Altrup, Manson, Henderson, Peke, Tolson, Osnes, Loehler, and Haynes. With these many experienced men back again and with the addition of new men like John Gross, Littlepage and Nickles, a successful season is assured.

George Washington will participate in many big meets this year. This will include the Catholic University, Georgetown and Johns Hopkins annual track meets.
